About the

Maple Ridge Historical Society

The Maple Ridge Historical Society, established in 1956, helps keep the history of Maple Ridge vibrant. Not only does the Society operate the Maple Ridge Museum, Haney House, and other heritage buildings, they also host a number of heritage-based events throughout the year — Music on the Wharf and the Heritage Tea, for example.

About the

Maple Ridge Museum

The Maple Ridge Museum is located at the former site of the Port Haney Brick & Tile Company. It inhabits the manager's home and office. Displays reflect the history of the community, its founding families, and its industries. The Museum is also home to the community archive and photograph collection.

Haney House Museum

Haney House Museum was the home of the pioneering Haney Family. The home was built in 1878, and inhabited by the family until 1979. Displays reflect the Haney family and the associated lifestyle changes over a century of habitation.
